DECISIONS

OF THE COURT OF APPEALS OF MARYLAND.

Shaw & Gambrill,

ANNAPOLIS,
Propose to Publish by Subscription, THE DECISIONS OF THE COURT OF APPEALS OF MARYLAND,

To be Reported by Thomas Harris, Esquire, Clerk of the Court of Appeals, and Reverdy Johnson, Esquire, Attorney at Law.

These Decisions will form a continuation of the first volume of Reports already published by Messrs Harris and Johnson, which closes with the year 1803. It is proposed to publish the Decisions in a Series of Numbers, each to contain not less than one hundred and twenty five pages, and four numbers to constitute a volume. The last number of each volume will contain a full and complete Index. This mode of publication, it is conceived, possesses advantages which give it a decided preference to that of publishing the Reports in bulky volumes. It ensures the earlier publication of the Reports, and is not more than four numbers will be published in a year, the expense will not be so sensibly felt.

TERMS.
The price of each number of the Reports will be $1 25, payable on delivery.

Subscriptions to the above Work are received at Shaw & Gambrill's Store, the Maryland Gazette Office, and the respective Offices of the County Clerks of this State.

Annapolis, June 1823.

250 Dollars Reward.

He has a florid complexion, is freckled; has a black, thick beard and whiskers; steps short, quick and erect, has a genteel appearance, is a house carpenter and joiner by trade, hesitates and stammers a little when spoken to, is remarkably hairy on the breast and limbs, on the outside of one of his legs he has a scar from a burn, he has a round full face, with light hazel eyes, can read and write and no doubt has written a pass for himself. He had two suits of clothing when he went away, one of black broad cloth, one of blue; also a dimity round jacket and pantaloons; and was seen in Baltimore in December last.
